Project description:

This Twinning Project forms an interinstitutional cooperation agreement between the Corruption Prevention Commission and Ministry of Justice of Armenia, and relevant institutions in Germany and Latvia. Through this cooperation, the project team aims to develop and assist in the implementation of anticorruption (integrity) education and public awareness programmes and strengthen institutional capacities, to reinforce business integrity and ensure a corruption prevention capacity in Armenian institutions. In addition, the project will advance implementation of the Armenia's Anti-Corruption Strategy, in particular by enhancing the monitoring capacity of the Anti-Corruption Policy Development and Monitoring department of the Ministry of Justice.

Expected results:

Result 1: Institutional capacity of the Corruption Prevention Commission (CPC) to develop and assist in the implementation of anticorruption (integrity) education and public awareness programmes in Armenia increased.

Result 2: Strategic communication and collaboration mechanisms for the CPC are in place and functioning.

Result 3: Level of implementation of Anti-Corruption Strategy enhanced through developing monitoring capacity of the Ministry of Justice of Armenia.

Result 4: Business integrity of state-owned enterprises improved.
